Part III

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES[1]

(Including all institutions of higher education)

An institution is listed in this directory ONLY ONCE under the State in which it is located. Arrangement of the data shown is uniform as follows:

> Name of institution, location (accrediting; control; student body). President's name.
>
> Professional department—name of dean or director in charge.
>
> * Department is accredited by its professional association.

CLASSIFICATION OF INSTITUTIONS

Institutions are classified according to their offerings into six types:

1. College or university offering liberal arts; 4-year; degree-granting.
2. Professional or technological school—independently controlled.
3. Teachers college; 4-year; degree-granting.
4. Normal school; 2- or 3-year; does NOT grant degrees.
5. Negro institutions of all types.
6. Junior college; 2-year; does NOT grant degrees.

NAMES OF INDIVIDUALS

The president's name is listed after that of the institution. Names of deans or directors in charge of professional schools controlled by colleges or universities are listed. Names of heads of departments in arts and science colleges are not included.

ABBREVIATIONS

In the parenthesis immediately following the name and location of an institution, the abbreviations indicate THREE facts separated by semicolons:

1. The ACCREDITING of the institution by one or more of the national or regional accrediting associations; State agencies are not shown.
2. The CONTROL of the institution whether public, private, or denominational.

Part III
COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES
Including all institutions of higher education

Part III

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES [1]

(Including all institutions of higher education)

An institution is listed in this directory only once under the State in which it is located. Arrangement of the data shown is uniform as follows:

> Name of institution, location (accrediting; control; student body).
> Name of president.
> Names of chief business officer, registrar, dean of men, dean of women, dean of students (for universities and colleges only).
> Professional department—name of dean or director in charge.
> *Department is accredited by its professional association.
> Summer session—name of dean or director.

CLASSIFICATION OF INSTITUTIONS

Institutions are classified according to their offerings into six types:

1. College or university offering liberal arts; 4-year; degree-granting.
2. Professional or technological school—independently controlled.
3. Teachers college; 4-year; degree-granting.
4. Normal school; 2- or 3-year; does not grant degrees.
5. Negro institutions of all types.
6. Junior college; 2-year; does not grant degrees.

ABBREVIATIONS

In parentheses immediately following the name and location of an institution, the abbreviations indicate three facts, separated by semicolons:

1. The accrediting of the institution by one or more of the national or regional accrediting associations.

Part III

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES[1]

(Including all institutions of higher education)

An institution is listed in this directory only once under the State in which it is located. Arrangement of the data shown is uniform as follows:

> Name of institution, location (accrediting; control; student body).
> Name of president.
> Names of chief business officer, registrar or secretary, dean of men, dean of women, dean of students.
> Professional school or department—name of dean or director in charge.[2]
> *School or department is accredited by its professional association.[3]
> Summer session—name of dean or director.

CLASSIFICATION OF INSTITUTIONS

Institutions are classified according to their offerings into six types:

1. College or university offering liberal arts; 4-year; degree-granting.
2. Professional or technological school—independently controlled.
3. Teachers college; 4-year; degree-granting.
4. Normal school; 2- or 3-year; does not grant degrees.
5. Negro institutions of all types.
6. Junior college; 2-year; does not grant degrees.

ABBREVIATIONS

In parentheses immediately following the name and location of an institution, the abbreviations indicate three facts, separated by semicolons:

1. The accrediting of the institution by one or more of the national or regional accrediting associations.

---

[1] The Educational Directory is released in 4 parts as rapidly as data become available: Part I. State and County School Officers. Part II. City School Officers. Part III. Colleges and Universities, including all institutions of higher education. Part IV. Educational Associations and Directories. Parts can be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Part III was prepared by Ella B. Ratcliffe, Higher Education Division, and Edith B. Noyes, Editorial Division.

[2] Schools or departments of teachers colleges are not indicated.

[3] Some universities maintain accredited departments which are the equivalent of schools in other universities, but such departments are not listed unless they are separately organized, with a dean or director in charge.

Part III
EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORY
1939

◆

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

INCLUDING ALL INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION

EDUCATIONAL DIRECTORY, 1939

OFFICE OF EDUCATION

Bulletin 1939, No. 1

ISSUED IN FOUR PARTS

I. State and County School Officers
II. City School Officers
III. Colleges and Universities
IV. Educational Associations and Directories

Part III

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES[1]

(Including all institutions of higher education)

An institution is listed in this directory only once under the State in which it is located. Arrangement of the data shown is uniform as follows:

> Name of institution, location (accrediting; control; student body).
> Name of president.
> Names of chief business officer, registrar or secretary, dean of men, dean of women, dean of students.
> Professional school or department—name of dean or director in charge.[2]
> *School or department is accredited by its professional association.[3]
> Summer session—name of dean or director.

CLASSIFICATION OF INSTITUTIONS

Institutions are classified according to their offerings into six types:

1. College or university offering liberal arts; 4-year; degree-granting.
2. Professional or technological school—independently controlled.
3. Teachers college; 4-year; degree-granting.
4. Normal school; 2- or 3-year; does not grant degrees.
5. Negro institutions of all types.
6. Junior college; 2-year; does not grant degrees.

ABBREVIATIONS

In parentheses immediately following the name and location of an institution, the abbreviations indicate three facts, separated by semicolons:

1. The accrediting of the institution by one or more of the national or regional accrediting associations.

---

[1] The Educational Directory is released in 4 parts as rapidly as data become available: Part I. State and County School Officers. Part II. City School Officers. Part III. Colleges and Universities, including all institutions of higher education. Part IV. Educational Associations and Directories. Parts can be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Part III was prepared by Ella B. Ratcliffe, Higher Education Division, and Roswell Waldo.

[2] Schools or departments of teachers colleges are not indicated.

[3] Some universities maintain accredited departments which are the equivalent of schools in other universities, but such departments are not listed unless they are separately organized, with a dean or director in charge.

2. The control of the institution whether public, private, or denominational.
3. The STUDENT-BODY:

ACCREDITING

Colleges and universities are accredited by seven national or regional accrediting associations. These associations are indicated throughout this directory by the following abbreviations:

A, Association of American Universities—a national accrediting association.
E, New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools—regional.
M, Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools—regional.
N, North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools—regional.
S, Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools—regional.
T, American Association of Teachers Colleges—national.
W, Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools—regional.

Recognition of institutions by State boards of education or by State universities is not shown in this directory; this information together with standards of accrediting is compiled in an Office of Education bulletin on Accredited Higher Institutions, an edition of which will be published in 1938 or 1939.

Professional colleges or schools are accredited by another group of associations which promote professional training. The following accrediting associations rate institutions as class A (*), class B (†), or give a provisional rating (‡).

Architecture—Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture.
Business—American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.
Chemical Engineering—American Institute of Chemical Engineers.
Dentistry—Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association. Ratings temporarily discontinued.
Engineering—Engineers' Council for Professional Development.[4]
Journalism—American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism.
Law—American Bar Association.
Library Science—American Library Association.
Medicine—American Medical Association.
Music—National Association of Schools of Music.
Optometry—International Association of Boards of Examiners in Optometry.
Osteopathy—American Osteopathic Association.
Pharmacy—American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy.
Social work—American Association of Schools of Social Work.
Theology—American Association of Theological Schools.

NOTE.—The Office of Education does NOT accredit or approve any educational institution.

CONTROL

The legal control of each institution (NOT support or affiliation) is shown for each institution with the following abbreviations:

C.—City or municipal government—public control.
Church—refer to abbreviations—denominational control.
Co.—County government—public control.
Dist.—District government—public control.

HIGHER INSTITUTIONS INCLUDED IN THIS DIRECTORY

A. UNIVERSITIES, COLLEGES, AND TEACHERS COLLEGES:

1. Accredited by the following agencies:
   (a) Association of American Universities.
   (b) Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
   (c) Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
   (d) North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

[4] The accrediting applies to undergraduate engineering curricula. Sixteen different branches of engineering have been accredited. For some institutions the council has accredited curricula in practically all of these branches, but instead of indicating for each institution each accredited curriculum, approval of the general subject of engineering is shown in this directory. The complete list of engineering curricula accredited by the council is contained in a supplement to the Journal of Engineering Education for October 1937. It will be included also in the revised bulletin on Accredited Higher Institutions to be published by the Office of Education during the latter part of 1938 or the early part of 1939.

(e) Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools.
(f) American Association of Teachers Colleges.
(g) State universities and State departments of education.

2. All State-supported institutions.
3. Four-year institutions which are not accredited by any agency but which enroll 100 or more resident college students in regular session and graduate at least 10 students annually.

B. INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL AND TECHNOLOGICAL SCHOOLS:

1. Accredited by professional associations or approved by State universities or State departments of education.
2. Not accredited by any agency but which enroll 25 or more resident students of college grade in regular session and graduate at least 5 students annually.

C. JUNIOR COLLEGES AND NORMAL SCHOOLS:

1. Accredited by the agencies listed under A–1 (above).
2. Which—
   (a) Require high-school graduation for entrance;
   (b) Offer 2 years of work of college grade;
   (c) Enroll 50 or more resident students of college grade in regular session;
